WATCH out Sven Goran Eriksson – former FA babe Faria Alam is out to settle old scores in her new role as a sexy movie assassin.

Faria, 40, who shot to fame after romping with Manchester City boss Eriksson during his time as England manager, plays Lakshmi, a PVC-clad hit woman in the new British-Asian crime flick Cash And Curry.

And the former FA secretary isn't the only British celeb to make her acting debut in the film, billed by producers as a "fast paced comedy-drama, set in multi-cultural London". Sexy Big Brother 6 contestants

Makosi Musambasi, 26, and Kinga Karolczak, 22, also star, alongside ex-Steps singer Lee Latchford-Evans, 32.

Ameet Chana, 31 and Pooja Shah, 29, who played EastEnders siblings Adi and Kareena Ferreira, play the lead roles.

A source close to Faria said: "Hopefully, she can ditch the 'Sven's mistress' tag once and for all if the film is a hit."

She's been interested in acting for a long while and had a great time shooting this film.

Producers hope the movie will be released in UK cinemas at the end of the year.
